

I generally don't encourage more government involvement in daily life , but I feel strongly that cell phone use aboard commercial airplanes should be prohibited. This is mainly a safety concern, both mechanically and with respect to attention/disruption of safety messages or commands. The annoyance factor could lead to unintended problems with other passengers as well. Thank you.